Now it is easier than ever to find the perfect books for your child – shop our NEW online Book Club Web site. Best of all, we earn a FREE book for our library every time a parent places an order online.

It's so simple: Sign up at www.scholastic.com/bookclubs. On the parent page, register by clicking “Don't have a user name or password?” link. When prompted, enter the one-time Class Activation Code: GNJT6

We hope this will be more convenient and easier for our parents. If you do not have access to a computer we will still do orders at school.

DOES EVERYONE FEEL AS GUILTY AS I DO WHEN I LEAVE IN THE MORNING??

At one time or another every parent feels guilt about leaving a child in a child care center. It makes no difference whether it's a pre-school program, a Mother's Day Out, or full day care. Somehow working parents and single parents seem to suffer the most. They often ask themselves the hard questions: "Am I doing the right thing?" "Can I stop working?" "Should I stay home?" You are not alone, all parents feel this way. How you handle your feelings and emotions will help your child have a successful school year.

Tips for a Successful School Year:

1. Good feelings are contagious.

If you are genuinely enthusiastic about the first day, your child will look forward to it also.

2. Count on our staff members to help your family during this important times.

We know that every parent and every child adjusts differently. Therefore, dealing with separation will in essence be the curriculum for the first few day or even weeks, that your child is in our care.

3. Saying goodbye.

Reassure your child that you will be back to pick him/her up. Do not make promises you can't keep. If you tell your child "I will pick you up early", make sure you are there early to pick her/him up. Your word is taken as an unbreakable truth by your child. If your child cries or does not want you to leave, don't hang around even though it may break your heart to go. It will be easier for your child if you make the break quickly. Establish some arrival routines, put belongings in your child's cubby, or wave goodbye. Always say goodbye with a kiss, hug or wave. Be firm, but friendly and loving about leaving.

There is nothing in this world like seeing your child successfully take their first steps, grow and develop into their own special person. One of the ultimate measures of your success in life will be how good of a job you do in raising your child. This is not a burden or some cross to bear. It is one of life's greatest blessings. Enjoy this new journey with your child.

AND REMEMBER WE ARE HERE TO HELP. ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS ASK?
